

Royal Tunbridge Wells Fencing Club

Swordfight your way to the summer holidays

Ah, the summer term! The wonders of the year's longest holiday are just a few weeks away... and yet you still have to go to school, sit exams and maybe even take part in activities on sports day that you're not very good at.

Thank heavens, then, that you don't have to wait until July to try something that's new and fun! That's because Royal Tunbridge Wells Fencing Club is running a beginners epee course, which starts just after all that Easter chocolate has been finished - perfect for burning off those extra calories in a constructive way!

Whether you're quick of limb or fast of thought, learning to fence will stimulate your brainbox in fiendishly fun ways. Of the three swords used in the modern sport of fencing, the epee is a brilliant weapon to start with as there are no tricky rules and no limit to the target area - so, ultimately, you'll be able to hit your opponent almost anywhere you like!

The course is open to children aged 6 to 12. Each session will consist of a general warm-up, footwork, technical exercises and sword fights! All equipment is provided, just wear tracksuit bottoms and trainers - and bring a drink (a water cooler is available).

To book your place on the taster / course, please call 07768 085 735 or email: rtwfencingclub@gmail.com. See the column to the right for further details. If you're not sure if you want to commit to the whole course before even trying the sport, that's no problem: just pay for first 'taster' session then see how you feel.

So don't wait until the summer holidays to have fun trying something new. Instead, come and pick up a sword - and lunge, parry and flèche your way through the painfully slow days of summer term.
